

INMAN STRIKES AT HEART OF CHARGE

Attorney For D. C. Stephenson and Two Aides Files Motion to Quash Two Counts

HITS AT MURDER CHARGE

Asserts Allegations of Indictment Are Contradictory as to Manner of Girl's Death

(By United Press)

Indianapolis, Ind., May 4—D. C. Stephenson today struck at the heart of the grand jury indictment charging him with murder of Miss Madge Oberholtzer.

Stephenson, organizer of the Ku Klux Klan in the central west, went jauntily into the court house with Eph Inman, his attorney, Earl Klenck and Earl Gentry, indicted jointly with him and filed a motion to quash two counts of the indictment charging him with first degree murder.

After filing of the motion, Stephenson and his aides and his counsel left the court, the former grand dragon swinging along confidently to resume his place in a cell in the Marion county jail.

Inman's motion, if successful, will have the effect of striking out the first degree murder charge from the indictment and will leave only those parts which state that Miss Madge Oberholtzer died from poison.

A tremendous crowd filled every inch in the criminal court room awaiting to get a sight of Stephenson, wearing bracelets. A large number of women were in the crowd.

The motion to strike out the vital points of the first and fourth counts of the indictment, asserted the charges of the indictment are contradictory as to the manner in which Miss Oberholtzer met death.

It declares the language of the indictment in numerous instances is nothing more than a recital of immaterial and irrelevant events and can only have the effect of prejudicing the right of the defendants in the minds of the jury.

On his way back to jail Stephenson lit a cigar and cocked his hat jauntily over one eye. He smiled an acknowledgement to persons along the side who called to him. Several yelled "Hello Steve" and a few shook hands with him.

Investigation of the blaze which damaged Stephenson's home in Irvington last month was continued by Newman T. Miller, state fire marshal.

Firemen discovered large quantities of mixed gasoline and oil in open containers in the house.

The blaze started with an explosion in the dining room.

LAST MINUTE RUSH ON AT TREASURER'S OFFICE

Doors Will be Open Tonight For Convenience of Taxpayers—Collections Saturday $50,625.94

LESS THAN $50,000 DUE

The proverbial "last minute rush" was on in earnest today at the county treasurer's office, with a little less than $50,000 due on the spring installment of taxes when the office opened for business this morning.

This was the last day for paying spring taxes without the penalty being attached and there was a steady file of taxpayers going into the office all day. The office will close at five o'clock so that the day's collections can be checked, and will be reopened at seven o'clock for the convenience of taxpayers who may have been unable to pay their taxes up to this time. The office will remain open tonight until 8:30 or 9 o'clock.

Collections Saturday amounted to $50,625.94, which was the largest of any day this spring. Total collections up to this morning were $436,600.46 and the total amount falling due on the spring installment was $484,685.70. Receipts on Friday amounted to $36,903.06.

Eagle Lodge Has Large Delegation At Connersville Sunday

Rushville Eagles had a representation of approximately one hundred at the anniversary meeting of the lodge which was held in Connersville Sunday afternoon and evening.

Fifty members of the Rushville lodge went on a special I. & C. car and the remainder traveled in automobiles.

A class of 101 candidates was initiated as a part of the ceremonies, which were held at the Auditorium theatre building, and a big banquet was served in the evening. One candidate was from Rushville. Many surrounding cities were represented.

BOTH PARTIES ARE EXPECTING BIG VOTE

Quiet Campaign Will End Tuesday With City Primary Election to Name Tickets

NO REGISTRATION NEEDED

Persons Who Vote Will Automatically Qualify to Participate in Fall Election

Everything was in readiness today for the city primary election, which will be held Tuesday, and both political parties were expecting to get out large votes.

Each party has opposition in most of the offices, including two candidates each seeking the nomination for mayor. There is even more opposition in the councilmanic races, and those who survive the primary Tuesday, will be the party candidates on the city ticket this fall.

The primary campaign was conducted quietly by the candidates, and aside from the customary passing out of cards, one would scarcely know that a campaign was in progress. No speeches were made, but several of the candidates made visits to the factories and handed out cards. A house to house canvass was made by only one office seeker.

Many people residing out of the city or who are ill are detained at home for some reason, have voted the absent voter's route, and these ballots will be taken to the polls in the morning by Earl Osborne, city clerk, and voted in the usual manner.

Attention was called today to the fact that the voting in the primary election Tuesday does not require any registration. A person who votes Tuesday will be automatically registered for the November election, and this will save the trouble of having to be registered this fall.

Another thing was mentioned today, in which attention was called to the fact that there are only six voting precincts in the city election, as compared with ten for a county or general election.

In this way a person does not necessarily vote in the same place where they voted last fall. In the first precinct of the first ward the voting place is at the garage at the rear of the home of Willard Amos, which is in the same vicinity of the Catholic School hall, which formerly constituted this voting precinct.

The second voting precinct is located at the Graham high school building. The first ward constitutes all of the territory east from the middle of Main street.

In the second ward the voting places are at the K. of P. hall and the residence of Arthur Looney in West Third street. In the third ward, precinct five votes at Mrs. Ford's garage, Fourth and Sexton, and the sixth precinct votes at Mrs. Retherford's garage, Tenth and Main.

The polls Tuesday will be opened from six a. m. until six p. m. and all voters were being urged today to turn out and cast their votes. Anyone who will be 21 years old by November 3, will be eligible to vote in the primary and assist in nominating the ticket that they expect to support this fall.

MAY TERM OF COURT IS STARTED TODAY

Among Early Cases Set For Trial is One Against Walter Matthews For Failing to Stop Car

AFTER AN AUTO ACCIDENT

State Elects to Try Second Count, With Motion to Quash Pending Order in Divorce Suit

The May term in the Rush circuit court got under way today, with the court docket and the issues in the cases pending trial being reviewed, and several minor actions entered in the cases.

There was no intermission between the two terms of court, as the February term overlapped into the vacation period last week.

The two juries, the grand jury and the petit jurors, have been drawn by Willard H. Amos, jury commissioner, and they will be held in readiness for service when called to meet. The grand jury will probably not be used in this term unless something develops that should require their attention.

Among the early cases set for trial is the state case against Walter Matthews of Connersville, recently indicted on a charge of assault and battery and failing to stop and give name and address after an automobile accident. He is scheduled to be tried Thursday.

In this action the state has elected to try the second count of the indictment, charging him with failing to stop and give his name and address. To this count the defendants has filed a motion to quash, and the argument will be heard before the case is tried.

In the divorce complaint pending of Sadie Allen against Albert L. Allen, the court has ordered the defendant to pay $12.50 a week support and also $75 for her attorney fees.

The twelve names drawn for petit jury service and their townships are as follows: Clyde Henley, Ripley; Albert Kennedy, Washington; Oscar Applegate, Noble; Don C. Brooks, Noble; Ben Beaver, Noble; Elmer Alexander, Walker; Arthur Trowbridge, Center; Walter Conaway, William B. Kirkpatrick, Theo. Abercrombie, Jess Retherford and Charles Hugo, all of Rushville.

The six grand jurors are Elmer Owen, Sr., Orange; Otis Freeman, Richland; Elwood Kirkwood, Union; Francis Fore, Noble; Grover Thompson, Anderson and Charles Johnson, Posey.

B. F. CATO BEGINS PASTORATE HERE

New Minister is Welcomed at Main Street Christian Church Sunday—Public Reception Friday

OTHER CHURCH SERVICES

E. G. McKibben Begins Series of Sunday Evening Sermons—Special Topic at 1st Presbyterian

The Rev. B. F. Cato began his pastorate at the Main Street Christian church Sunday with a day full of activities, preaching two sermons and attending a basket dinner in honor of himself and Mrs. Cato and daughter in the basement of the church at noon.

A public reception for the new pastor and his family, who arrived last Friday evening from Marshalltown, Iowa, their former home, will be held in the church next Friday evening and a general invitation is extended to the public. The Main Street church has been without a pastor for seven months, the Rev. L. E. Brown having resigned last fall to go to Wilmington, Ohio.

The Rev. Gibson Wilson discussed the kind of material that should be used in home building, in a popular Sunday evening sermon at the First Presbyterian church on the subject, "Shall We Build Houses or Homes in Rushville?"

The Rev. H. W. Hargett used for a subject at St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal church Sunday morning, "The Law of the Increasing Life", and Miss Kahlo, field secretary of the Woman's Home Missionary society, delivered a brief but very interesting address preceding the sermon by the pastor. In the evening the choir under the direction of David S. McIntosh gave a very fine program of music. Seven were baptized and twenty-one received into full membership.

The Rev. R. W. Sage delivered two sermons at the First Baptist church Sunday, speaking in the morning on "The Fairness of Trial" and in the evening on "The Happy Life".

The Rev. E. G. McKibben opened a series of five Sunday evening sermons last night on the general theme of what others think of the Lord. His first theme was "The Opinion of Demons as to the Person and Work of Jesus Christ."

Main Street Christian

The Rev. B. F. Cato spoke in the morning on the subject, "Workers Together With God," pointing to the value of cooperation in church work and the necessity of man co-operating with God to accomplish the ends God desires.

The new minister made clear his position as pastor, pointing out that the only perfect preacher was crucified.

DRIVER SHOULD SIGNAL
New Motor Law Increasing Legal Speed Increased Hazards of Making Left Turn

Turning left is an art all its own and when more automobile drivers master the art of making a left turn the number of motor car accidents in cities and country roads will be decreased materially according to a statement issued by Todd Stoops, secretary-manager of the Hoosier Motor Club.

"The new motor law, which increases the legal speed on the open road from twenty-five miles an hour to thirty-five miles an hour has increased the hazards of making a left turn on country roads," says Mr. Stoops, "and many reports are being received of accidents narrowly averted on account of motorists turning sharply left off a main traveled highway and directly in front of oncoming motorists traveling at the legal speed of thirty-five miles an hour.

"The left turn has always been considered the most dangerous of all motor car operations and the cautious driver will look to the front and rear and signal properly before attempting the performance. By all means the driver should signal before turning left, but he should also be sure that the motorist in the rear sees his signal and is not coming so fast as to make it impossible to avoid a rear-end collision. And the oncoming motorist is also to be considered by the one who turns left. Turning left directly in front of a car traveling at a speed of thirty-five miles an hour makes a hazardous situation for the oncoming driver who must crash into the motorist who has turned left or be faced with the possibility of a head-on collision by swerving.

"Every one who drives has been placed in harrowing positions by the one who turns left. If the brakes won't stop the car in time the oncoming motorist must hit, broadside, the automobile which has turned left with fatal consequences to all its occupants, or he must collide, head-on, with another car with possibly fatal consequences to himself and others and also bear the legal responsibility of being on the wrong side of the road when the collision occurs. There are very few who drive who have not thought of all these possibilities in less than a second, when confronted by an incapable driver who turns left.

"The left turn should be made slowly if traffic is heavy to give every one a chance to see and anticipate the danger. It is imperative that a signal is given first; second, look front and back, and third, if traffic is heavy slow down or stand still until traffic has lessened. By slowing down or standing still, drivers to the front and rear can avoid a collision and the left turn can be completed with absolute safety. It is the hurry-up left turn that makes gray hairs, grinding brakes and fatal accidents.

"Traffic policemen can relate many instances of accidents and near accidents on account of the left turn. This operation seems to be confusing to many drivers who take a left turn around a traffic man and fail to stop until traffic with the 'Go' signal is halted. A good slogan for every motorist would be 'Left Turn—Slow,' in the interest of safety and self-preservation.

"Police officers are showing great activity in some sections of the state and rigidly enforcing the provisions of the new motor law. Motorists should bear in mind that it is unlawful to travel faster than thirty-five miles an hour on the open road; unlawful to use a cut-out on any road and that signals should be given when approaching a cross-road or passing another car. Most of the arrests reported are based on violations of these provisions of the new act but a strict observance of all the provisions of the new motor laws will make motoring more pleasurable and safer."

CANADIANS EXPECT THIRSTY AMERICANS TO PAY WAR DEBT

By PAUL R. MALLON
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

(Copyright 1925, by United Press)
Toronto, Ont., May 4—Up here across the border where 4.4 percent beer becomes a legal beverage in another fortnight, they are oiling up the cash registers and polishing up the bars, in anticipation of sufficient influx of visitors from the dry United States this summer to pay off the Canadian war debt.

From coast to coast—Halifax to Vancouver—elaborate preparations have been made to cater to the American thirst.

Canada expects every pint to do its duty and provincial Treasury Price estimates that the 4.4 beer which goes on sale May 15, will bring in $6,750,000 annual revenue.

There will be hundreds of new saloons in Ontario as 500 applications for permits already have been filed with the authorities in anticipation of the new law becoming effective.

The province of Manitoba has officially announced it cleared $980,000 from selling all varieties of liquor during the eight months ending yesterday. Government profits in Quebec will net ten times that amount, according to conservative estimates. Other provinces expect returns accordingly.

As Ontario is the most accessible to the United States plans have been made for a dozen saloons in Bridgeburg—just a few minutes ride from Buffalo—and Niagara Falls, it is predicted, will be more popular with tourists than ever.

Enormous quantities of beer have been stored up by the O'Keefe and Cosgrave Breweries here. They have been "aging" it for the three months since the bill passed.

But the activity is not confined to Ontario. Out at Banff in Alberta, the golf course has been increased from nine to 18 holes and the 19th hole has been enlarged in anticipation of summer boarders from the states.

At Saskatoon Sask., the 12 leading hotel owners have rebelled against liquor restrictions and announce the ywill close unless granted the right to sell beer by the glass or bottle as they please. At the present time, they say Americans "smash furniture and generally raise Cain and all they buy from the hotel is lemons."

At Montreal the commission store

opposite the Mount Royal Hotel has ordered an extra stock to prepare for the American conventions which will flock there this summer.

Don't Be Too Late

Chiropractic Health Talk No. 212
By H. V. McCully, D. C., Ph. C.

Just the same as any piece of machinery gets beyond repair—so does the human body. For example, we will use an incordination of the kidneys to bring to you exactly what I mean.

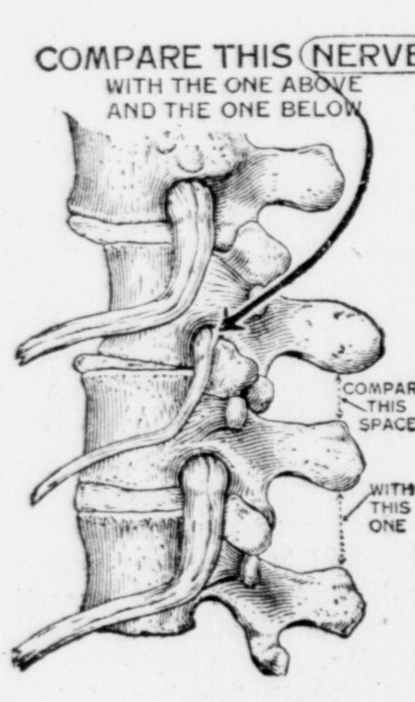

The kidneys have a specific work to do which is to carry away the waste or toxins of the body. Under healthy, normal conditions the kidneys are able to do twice the work that is required of them. Through strain or injury or in some unaccountable manner there is pressure brought to bear upon the nerves which supply the kidneys with vital force, at the point where they leave the spine. As a result, kidney action is cut down, congestion and a slow degeneration takes place. As time goes on, the kidneys are gradually but surely being destroyed.

The patient is fully aware that the kidneys are not working properly, but does nothing to have the condition corrected, thinking "maybe it will get better." At last so much of the working part of the kidneys is destroyed that if they were healed, there would not be enough left to carry on the normal work. In this case recovery is impossible.

This same process applies not only to the kidneys, but to any organ of the body. At the first sign of disorder, you should come in and have the cause removed by our spinal adjustments rather than wait until it is TOO LATE.

Men of Affairs Realize the Benefit of Keeping Fit
"I find the chiropractor very pleasant to visit. I take off coat and collar—he does a little adjusting. I get up and go about my business. Not half as bad as taking castor oil! I do not know much about the technique of Chiropractic, but from my experience it is successful!"

ified, and asked for charity in judgment, promising that he would be just as charitable in judging members of his congregation.

The Rev. Mr. Cato commented on the Rush county hospitality, of which he had been apprised before coming to Rushville, and said that his experience with it during the first day and a half in Rushville showed to him that there was nothing lacking.

Eight were added to the church at Sunday's services, three of whom were the pastor and his wife and daughter, who were admitted by letter. Four became members by confession of faith and another by letter.

The Rev. Mr. Cato used for his text in the morning, First Corinthians, 3:9. "We love to listen to the invitation of Jesus," he said, "but we must not forget that Saviour who invites us to rest also invites us to work."

"Men are being appreciated by what they do more than by what they think; and yet what they think largely determines what they will do. More money is being given for benevolence, education and missions. Churches are being judged by this rather than for their great doctrines and great preachers."

Work strengthens faith and spiritual life and purifies, the pastor asserted. Christian work fortifies heart and mind against skepticism, he pointed out.

"There is profound philosophy back of the utterance of Jesus that it is more blessed to give than receive," the speaker continued. "Work is only one form of giving. Jesus teaches that whatever goes out from you to bless another, comes back with increased blessing to yourself. The man who would injure another in only planning to injure himself more. The best way to bless yourself is to bless another. Withhold your money and you rob yourself as well as God. The faith that is not strong enough to save others is not strong enough to save you."

The Rev. Mr. Cato pointed out enjoyment and employment go hand in hand and that the busy church is the happy church.

He also showed that people have no trouble uniting when a great danger threatens, and that the problem is to make the church see how sin has brought starvation and death to millions and that Christ is bread for the starving.

"How startling it is," he continued, "that even God needs a worker, named man. Frail as a reed, yet this man can stand and defy omnipotence."

In closing, he referred to the many ways man had worked with God in developing the things on earth that He had provided.

"Praying in the Holy Spirit," Such

prayer is the pathway to power, to peace, to progress. Prayer will either make a man quit sinning, or sin will make a man quit praying. It is an absolute necessity to the increasing life of the soul.

"Keeping yourselves in love of God. No law of soul building is more vital. As sunshine to the flowers so is the sunshine of God's love to the growing soul. Heliotherapy, sun-healing, is a healing success in many parts of the world today. Many diseases are said to be the diseases of darkness. Sunlight destroys these germs and contributes to health and to the resisting power of the body. Build your so I lie on the sunlight of God's love and build the sunlight in and you will be building for deathless service and for the inheritance of the saints in light."

First United Presbyterian

The morning sermon at the United Presbyterian church was based on Isaiah 40:2, "Speak ye comfortably to Jerusalem." "Consoling words may be spoken of the past," the pastor said. "As it's sins are forgiven, so its sorrows and mistakes may be forgotten and its wisdom cherished. Encouraging words may be spoken of the present. Our influence has been broadened in measurably. Our interest is being appealed as never before. The help of each one is needed in every department of life and our Helper is near. Then hopeful words, are available as to the future. The period of service is short. The promises are very precious. The reward is very great and the place you fill is very important."

In the evening the sermon delivered by the pastor, was the first in the series on "What Others thought as to Jesus Christ." The topic was "The Opinion of Satan and Evil Angels as to His person and work." The pastor said in part: "The witnesses produced are exceedingly competent witnesses. Their information is full and accurate. It is not partial or distorted."

Demons are pure spirits. That is they are purely spiritual beings and are not hampered and hindered with material bodies as we are. It is hard for us to learn and easy for us to forget owing to bodies sin laden and poison soaked. As a result our information is partial, and in fragments and often inaccurate. Not so with demons. They know what is right and what is true.

"Demons are very ancient spirits. As to when they were created we have no information. So far as appears they, that is all angels, were created at once and their number has never been increased or diminished. The fall of Satan and his angels into sin and their expulsion from heaven took place before man's creation, how long we do not know."

"At the time of our Lord's ministry there could not have been less than 4,000 years old and very probably they had existed for ages."

"Demons are consequently very much experienced spirits. For ages before their infection they enjoyed heaven, and held a place of honor and favor there. Satan is supposed to have been an archangel. Then for ages they have populated hell and know all its dark secrets. For six millenniums they have ranged over the earth. Shortly after the creation of man they entered Eden and despoiled it. In Job's time, when asked 'When comest thou?' he said 'from walking to and from in the earth and from walking up and down in it.' Thus it seems they know intimately heaven and earth and hell. They are competent."

"But they are not very credible. Satan is a liar and the father of lies. Every demon is a past master in deception and in all kinds of treachery. Nevertheless we may gather that they have a very high opinion of Jesus Christ. Satan is consistent in his wickedness and we know his real opinion from his age long program and from his emphasis on certain things."

First Presbyterian

"At a time when there is a shortage of houses in Rushville, business is enlarging its plans and more laborers will be required," said the Rev. Mr. Wilson. "From the Christian standpoint we should be asking ourselves, where will they live?"

"Rushville needs more good houses that will rent at such price as wage earners can afford to live in them. They should have sufficient rooms for the comfort of a family, conveniences that make them enjoyable, well lighted and heated, suitable for a happy family."

"Christian principles should enter into the building of our houses as well as into our business and worship. This will help to sell Rushville and add to its future prosperity and happiness."

"But we need more than houses. We need homes. Some houses are merely stopping places. Material things are not enough in building a home."

"Home is not merely four walls

The Office of City Clerk

It is an office of more than passing importance to the voters of Rushville. It is equally as needful for the voters to exercise judgment in their selection for a city clerk nominee as it is for the other city offices.

This Office Requires One Experienced in that Line

For the past six years I have not missed a single session of the city council. I have attended these meetings in the capacity of your servant, to bring back the details of those meetings and relate them to you through the columns of The Daily Republican. I am City Editor of the newspaper, and am in a position that can link up closely the business of the city, (which is your business) and carry it to you.

To be Efficient, One Must be Qualified

In my visits at the council meetings, I have learned what it means to be City Clerk, and I know what the duties are in that office. I am a stenographer; typewriting is an essential part of this office, combined with bookkeeping and business letter writing experience. The records and business of the city are your business, and should be handled by one capable in all respects which will reflect to the credit of the city.

My Voting Number on All Republican Ballots is 16. I know that I am qualified, and am Asking Your Support at the Republican Primary, Tuesday.

THE REPUBLICANS SHOULD NOMINATE A CANDIDATE THAT CAN CARRY ON THIS OFFICE, AS IT HAS SO EFFICIENTLY BEEN CONDUCTED DURING THE PAST EIGHT YEARS.

The City Primary

The voters of Rushville will go to the polls Tuesday to select the nominees on the democratic and republican tickets who will face each other in the city election next fall. The primary takes the place of the old convention system, under which voters by precincts elected delegates to represent them at the nominating convention.

Under the present law, every voter is given an opportunity to vote directly for the person of his or her choice. It places greater responsibility upon the voter. No voter should vote without first obtaining sufficient information about the candidates to enable them to vote honestly and intelligently.

Although the direct primary has been in effect for some time it is still on trial and its value in comparison with the old convention system is doubted. The primary has yet to prove that it is the best method of selecting party candidates.

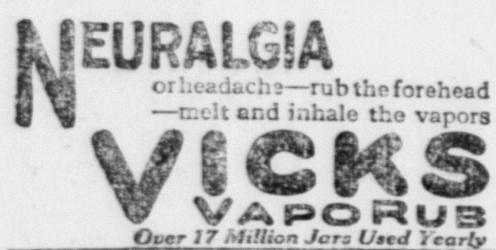

Any attempt that is made to prostitute the primary and turn it to purposes for which it is not intended will increase the sentiment against the system and will result ultimately in the repeal of the law. It is a good tool if properly used, but misuse will cause it to fall into disrepute.

The voter must swear that he will vote for the candidates of the party at the coming election, which he helps to choose in the primary; or that he voted for a majority of the candidates of that party at the last general election; or that he expects to affiliate with the political party, whose ticket he expects to help name in the primary, and will vote for the candidates of that party in the election.

This is no trivial matter. The voter violates his oath if he does not live up to one of these three conditions. He is not prevented from changing parties, but he is prevented, if he is honest, from endeavoring to cause the opposing party of his choice to nominate what he regards as a weak ticket, so that it will better enable his party to win at the election.

It is nothing short of dishonest for any man or woman voter to help select a party ticket in the primary with the idea of weakening the ticket and then vote for the other party in the election.

That is the inherent weakness of the primary system. The law makes proper safeguards against such a contingency, but those safeguards are dependent upon the honesty of the voters. If voters do not play square with the primary system, it is doomed.

Stewart's Washington Letter

BY CHARLES P. STEWART
NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON — Militarists, who abound here, are all excited over reports that Japan's reply to the United States' Hawaiian naval maneuvers is to be a set of maneuvers of her own, to show how easily she could beat such a fleet as this country's—of course in Far Eastern waters.

It isn't likely the Japanese think they could defeat America anywhere in the vicinity of the latter's home shores. Possibly they don't think they can defeat her at all. That idea may be merely a complex some people have got.

THE expected Japanese maneuvers are said to be scheduled for May 27. This makes the Washington militarists' complex worse. May 27 is the anniversary of the Battle of Tsushima, in which Japan's fleet destroyed Russia's, just 20 years ago.

"An apt reminder," say the militarists, "of the great sea fighters the Japanese are and how necessary it is to be ready for them."

WITH all due respect for Japan's courage and not disputing she can lick any fleet in the state of disrepair Russia's was in, the truth is that the Japanese are known among seafaring men as poor shipbuilders, bad sailors and perfectly impossible hands in an engine room.

THE classic example of Japan's shipbuilding is that of one of her crack 16,000-ton passenger liners, well known on the Pacific and still in service—with the Lord only knows what weight of concrete and pig iron in her hold, to keep her keel underneath her.

This craft's sister ship, which preceded her, was built in England. Her Japanese owners tried her out satisfactorily. Then they told the English builders they wanted another boat but would like to examine the plans first, with a view to possible modifications.

The builders, suspecting the Japanese of intending to do their own building from the English plans, made certain subtle changes before handing them over.

Sure enough, the new vessel was a Japanese product. Launching day arrived. The ship slid down the ways, hit the water and instantly turned bottom side up.

Later she was induced to assume a more dignified attitude, but it took English experts to persuade her to do it.

ALMOST all foreign airplane instructors who have tried to train Japanese aviators testify to the impossibility of developing them into first-class flying men.

They have courage and ample intelligence to learn all moves to be made, but practically without exception they lack the instinct of gentleness with machinery. "Cruelly" treated, it misbehaves.

JAPAN beat China in 1895. It looked wonderful but now we know there were few civilized countries—even little ones—that couldn't have done it. She beat Russia—on paper—but had to accept the best terms she could get, because in a few more months she herself would have been beaten.

She took Kiao Chau from the Germans but the latter were outnumbered 1000 to 1.

TO hear the Washington militarists, preaching "preparedness," you'd think they considered Japan well-nigh invincible. But ask them, as experts, what showing they believe she'd make against a first-class fighting power, and their answer is that nobody knows—she might perform pretty creditably, or she might crumple at the first impact.

LEGION POSTS TO START CAMPAIGNTo Raise Their Quotas in the Legion
National $5,000,000 Endowment
Fund For Disabled

MOVEMENT WAS DELAYED

Three Cities, Shelbyville, Brookville
and Ossian, Have Concluded
Their Campaign

Indianapolis, Ind., May 4—American Legion posts in many cities of Indiana will conduct an intensive campaign from this time until May 15 for their quotas in the Legion national $5,000,000 endowment fund for disabled veterans and war orphans.

Although a number of posts and communities have reached the goal set for them, the movement has been delayed in some places. Thomas McConnell, commander of the Indiana department, announced today.

Shelbyville, Brookville and Ossian are included in a list of cities where the campaign recently has been concluded successfully, according to Commander McConnell.

More than $3,000 was raised in less than a week at Shelbyville, where the quota was $2,500. Brookville with a quota of $700 exceeded that amount. Ossian also went "over the top" with a wide margin.

The national endowment fund movement, which, Commander McConnell declared, means aid for two classes of war sufferers, is now in full swing in every state of the country. Several states have reached the goals set for them and many have reached the point where success will be obtained shortly.

"Indiana has never fallen behind in any great undertaking in the past," declared Commander McConnell. "I am confident that she will not do so now."

"Much remains to be done to obtain that part of the national fund asked of our state but because of the uniform success which has met our efforts in places where a thorough campaign has been made, I know Indiana will not only raise its quota but exceed it."

"The impression must not be gained that this is a strictly Legion undertaking. The obligation to the disabled veterans and the children of those who have died rests equally upon all of us. Every one who appreciates the sacrifice made in his behalf by others should help the Legion in this campaign for the two chief classes of war sufferers."

R. H. S. ATHLETES DEFEAT GREENWOOD

Track and Field Team Wins What
Was Scheduled to be Triangular
Meet Saturday

GREENSBURG FAILS TO COME

Miller is High Point Man With Five Firsts and Locals Take All But Two Events

Rushville high school won what was scheduled to be a triangular track meet at Riverside park Saturday afternoon, but which resolved itself into a dual meet with Greenwood when Greensburg failed to put in an appearance.

Rushville scored 64 points to Greenwood's 35, winning nine firsts. Greenwood entries finished first in two events, the mile and 440 yard run.

Miller took five firsts for his team and as usual was the high point man. Newbold won two firsts, McNamara one and Farthing one.

Miller won the 100 yard dash, the 120 yard hurdles, the 220 yard dash, the shot put and the running broad jump. Newbold was first in the pole vault and 880 yard run. McNamara won the 220 yard hurdles and Farthing took the high jump.

Miller made the best time and should have had first in the 440 yard run, but was given second place when Greenwood complained that he brushed Jennings near the finish.

Newbold won the pole vault by going ten feet, two inches, and in an exhibition vault afterwards went ten feet, four inches.

Herman Phillips, former Rushville high school athlete and crack distance runner and member of the champion Butler college relay team, ran an exhibition half mile and mile and gave an exhibition in the running broad jump.

Greensburg's team was unable to come on account of participating in a Rotary club Boy's Week field day Saturday.

The mile and half mile relays were not run as scheduled.

The placings and time in the meet were as follows:

100 yard dash—Miller (Rushville) 1st; Slater (Greenwood) 2nd; Fee (Greenwood) 3rd. Time 10 3-5 seconds.

120 yard hurdles—Miller (Rushville) 1st; Newbold (Rushville) 2nd; Moore (Greenwood) 3rd; Springer (Greenwood) disqualified. Time 12 2-10 seconds.

One mile run—Bailey (Greenwood) 1st; McNamara (Rushville) 2nd; Carter (Greenwood) 3rd. Time 5:30 4-10.

440 yard run—Jennings (Greenwood) 1st; Miller (Rushville) 2nd; Newbold (Rushville) 3rd. Time 54 2-5 seconds. (Made by Miller who finished first but was moved back to second on protest of Greenwood that he brushed Jennings near the tap in passing.)

220 yard dash—Miller (Rushville) 1st; Fee (Greenwood) 2nd; Lyons (Greenwood) 3rd. Time 23 3-5 seconds.

220 yard hurdle—McNamara (Rushville) 1st; Newbold (Rushville) 2nd; Moore (Greenwood) 3rd. Time 29 1-5 sees.

Attack Not Publicity Stunt

By HENRY L. FARELL
(United Press Sports Editor)
New York, May 4—Theatrical producers always have been envious of the Pennsylvania station here baseball gets from the newspapers. Actors are all more or less jealous of the space that is devoted to the exploits of ball players. They claim that professional baseball is no more of a sport than theatricals and that it should be classified as an amusement and treated as such.

When Babe Ruth was carried out of the Pennsylvania station here several weeks ago after he had collapsed and when the presses of all the metropolitan papers were being held ready for an extra, a well-known producer at one of the theatrical clubs said:

"Perfectly staged. Not a flaw in design or execution. A million dollars' worth of publicity."

The Babe will be out of the game for at least a month and in that time the Yankees might lose so much distance that they couldn't regain it during the rest of the season. The importance of the Babe to the Yankee team has been shown time after time. He is not only a great hitter and a fine defensive player, but he is the real spirit and inspiration of the whole team.

It is absurd to think that the Yankees would keep the Babe out of the lineup for a month or six weeks just to make good a publicity scheme.

Ruth no doubt will come out of the experience all to the good. He will be in better physical condition after the rest and while he will be much lighter, he will be stronger, as four weeks on a special diet will be just what was needed for his abused stomach.

Many causes of the Babe's illness are being whispered around and all of them but one are wrong. Ruth eats too much and that is what brings about all his troubles. He eats more and oftener than any three men on the Yankee team and he eats at the worst time. He has a big meal before he goes to the park and before the game he usually takes on three or four hot dog sandwiches and a couple of bottles of soda. When the natural kick-back comes, he fills up on bicarbonate of soda. He takes on a huge meal at dinner time and then gets hungry about midnight and goes to bed with a loaded stomach.

His doctors told him two years ago that he would have to watch his diet or that he would eat his way clear out of baseball, but the Babe is one who figures, what's the use in being hungry when you have money.

EXPECT FIGHT OVER BUS FRANCHISES

Public Service Commission Predicts
Opposition From Traction Companies of State

AUTHORIZED BY NEW LAW

Moorhead Law Authorizes Public
Service Commission to Grant
Franchises to Bus Operators

Indianapolis, Ind., May 4—Strenuous opposition to the granting of franchises to motor bus lines paralleling interurban lines was expected from the traction companies by public service commission officials today.

A. L. Brady, president of the Indiana Union Traction company, has already notified the commission that his concern would fight the granting of franchises to bus operators along the routes of the company's lines.

Other traction and railroad concerns have sent in similar notifications.

Granting of franchises to bus operators by the public service commission was authorized under the Moorhead law passed by the last legislature for public service commission regulation of inter-city common carrier motor busses and trucks.

Under the provisions of the law all bus lines that have been operating "lawfully" ninety days before the taking effect of the act may be granted franchises without a public hearing.

Public service commission officials expect the traction and railroad concerns to demand a public hearing before franchises are granted to bus lines paralleling their lines.

The contention of these concerns is expected to be that the busses have not been operating "lawfully." They are expected to contend that operators have been violating a statute enacted in 1913 that required a franchise from the county from all motor vehicles operating for profit.

EXPLAIN PROVISIONS OF NEW PERMIT STATUTE

Instructions Received by County
Clerk Barlow From Fisheries and
Game Superintendent

RELATE TO EX-SERVICE MEN

Leonard Barlow, county clerk, has received instructions from George N. Mannfeld, superintendent of fisheries and game of the state conservation department, relating to free permits to honorably discharged soldiers, sailors and marines.

Under the 1925 act of the general assembly, provisions were made to give permits for fishing and hunting to those eligible under the new laws. The permits may be given to discharged soldiers, sailors and marines of the Civil War, either resident or non-residents of the state. The permits are also given to such veterans of all other wars, excepting they must reside in Indiana.

Application for permits should be made on the blank form furnished for that purpose by the state department. These applications are also sent into the state each month, along with the report of the licenses regularly sold. Clerks have been cautioned to look over the discharge papers carefully and be sure that they are genuine, and that the person applying for the license was discharged honorably.

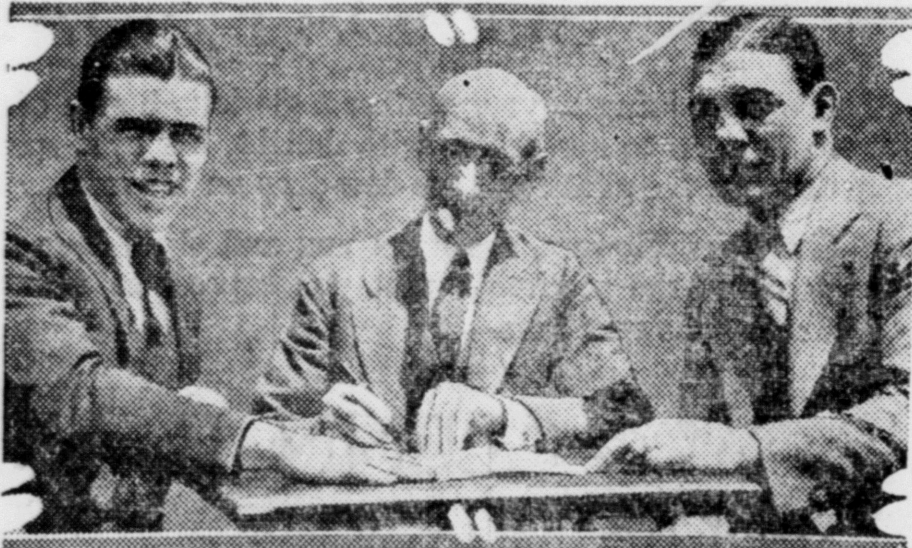

This law is now considered to be obsolete and no attempt is made to enforce it.

Between five and six hundred bus operators have been sent blanks for franchise applications by the public service commission under the Moorhead law.

Four application blanks have been returned.

The first certificate of convenience and necessity is expected to be granted a bus line operating between Indianapolis and Beech Grove which is just a few miles length.

KEEPING ONE EYE ON THE SCORE BOARD

Yesterday's Hero: With two down in the 9th inning and two strikes on him, Jack Fournier hit a homer with one on and gave the Robins a 2 to 1 victory over the Phillies.

Bing Miller's home run in the second inning provided the Athletics with a 1 to 0 victory over the Yankees. It was the second time that Sam Gray shut out the Yankees this season.

Two homers by Rogers Hornsby enabled the Cardinals to beat the Cubs 8 to 7.

Pittsburgh pulled a ninth inning rally and scored four runs but Donohue went to the rescue of Laque and retired the side, the Reds winning 5 to 4.

The Indians and the Tigers pulled up 6-6 in a seven inning game that was called to allow Detroit to catch a train.

Charley Robertson gave a base on balls and then tossed in a wild heave that let in a run and gave the Browns a 3 to 2 victory over the White Sox.

Dutch Reuther held the Red Sox safe all the way and hit a double and single that helped the Senators win, 7 to 2.

Carmelita Geraghty Known As One
Of Best Dressed Girls In Filmland

Former Rushville Girl Always Among Those Present at Style Pageants, Revues and Fashionable Teas and No Fashionable Soirees at The Hotels But She is Engaged to Assist in Some Capacity

Carmelita Geraghty, of Hollywood, Calif., former Rushville girl, is known as one of the best dressed girls in filmland and is always among those present at style pageants, revues and fashionable teas, according to a story received from Edith M. Ryan, news writer, by the Daily Republican.

Miss Geraghty has appeared in pictures and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom J. Geraghty of Hollywood, who at one time lived in Rushville. Mr. Geraghty was editor of the Daily Republican, resigning to enter newspaper work in New York City, and later took up motion picture work, first as a scenario writer. He has advanced to the point where he has directed a number of pictures.

According to Miss Ryan, Peggy Hamilton, of the Los Angeles Times, responsible for the fashion page and who has staged many a revue and style show at leading hotels and theaters, always calls upon Carmelita as one of her aids. No fashionable soiree at the Ambassador or Biltmore, but Carmelita is engaged in assisting in some capacity and usually pours tea, Miss Ryan says.

"As clever men bend their energies in mastering the problem of law, medicine, banking or whatever their bent may be, Carmelita Geraghty has regarded dress of such prime importance that she gives it serious attention and thought," the writer declares. "She does not put on anything, never has, never will. She feels that the screen actress is the cynosure of every eye, on and off the screen. So the actress should be a standard."

"It has always been a tradition that the actress should lead in styles," Miss Geraghty is quoted as saying. "Consequently she should give all care to her wardrobe and select those costumes suitable to her personality, but of course, modish things."

"Miss Geraghty is not for fads," adds Miss Ryan. "She really emphasizes starting first with an understanding of one's own type and dressing accordingly. Being of Spanish descent, she gravitates naturally to a Latin note in her costumes. This note is just touched lightly so that it is difficult to describe it. But it brings out the vividness of her 'type,' so she is 'easy to look at.'" the St. Paul's M. E. church, delivered a sermon Sunday morning on the subject "The Law of the Increasing Life," taking his text from Judge 20:21, "but ye beloved, building up yourselves on your most holy faith, praying in the Holy Spirit, keep yourselves in the love of God, looking for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ unto eternal life."

"St. Jude is teaching us the law of the increasing life," the pastor explained and continued as follows: "It is a lesson that we all need to learn. In the natural world we recognize the reign of law. In the spiritual realm we are apt to think that we can defy all law and yet reach the ends we desire. Having been converted baptized and received unto the church we sing 'tis done, the great transactions done.' In reality it has but begun. The church is not a resting place for the soul but a school for its culture. The supreme test of a man's orthodoxy is not what does he profess to believe nor even what is he and what has he done but what is he becoming."

"Jude teaches us that effort, continuous, persistent effort is the price of success. Growth may be unconscious but building is not. A gentleman said to me the other day, 'We must build from fifty to one hundred new houses in Rushville. We can't sit down and wait for them to grow.' The same law applies to life. By taking thought we cannot add one cubit to our physical stature but by taking thought we may add a hundred cubits to our spiritual stature or by failing to take thought we may lose a hundred. The man in the parable knew that barns must be built. The people called him wise because he knew that barns wouldn't build themselves but God called him a fool because he thought that barns required more care than souls. "This night thy soul is required of thee. Then, Oh, the pity and the tragedy of it! He had barns but no soul worthy of being saved. Religion is soul building. It's vital test is no theology but the health. The nobleness, the sympathy, the spaciousness, the development of the soul. 'Building on the most holy faith,' not on the light, the trifling, the superficial, the irreverent. Nothing will stand the test of time that is not based on the revelation of God."

VICE PRES. DAWES TO TOUR COUNTRY

To Carry His Crusade For Changes in Senate Rules to all Parts of United States

TO BE IN INDIANA IN JUNE

To Speak in States of Senators Who Are Leading Members of Rules
Committee

By WILLIAM J. LOSH
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Washington, May 4—Vice Presi-
Dawes will personally carry his crusade for changes in the senate rules to all parts of the country this summer. The vice president's tour will take him to Alabama, Kentucky,
Indiana, Ohio, Kansas, the far west, and probably again into New England.

His tentative schedule calls for a speech in Birmingham, Ala., May 27 and thereafter speeches in Kentucky in June; Indiana and Ohio in June, and July; Kansas in August, the far west in September or October, and in New England later.

The fundamental strategy in the Dawes campaign is to speak in states of senators who are leading members of the senate rules committee through which he must get his reforms before they can be adopted by the senate itself.

Dawes' speech in Birmingham is a tribute to Senator Oscar Underwood, Democrat, and a member of the committee, who is the only Democratic member who has rallied to his side in the fight, and likely to be the only one.

Kansas is the home state of Senator Charles Curtis, Republican leader, who so far has not committed himself, and Indiana is the home of Senator Jim Watson, assistant leader, also non-committal and of Senator Ralston, Democrat. All are members of the rules committee.

The far western invasion, the Kentucky and the Ohio speeches are not strictly parts of this program of assault on the rules committee members but calculated as general appeals to the committee on separated points.

His confederates expect him to invade New England once more because it is the stronghold of rules
committee members, Hale of Maine,
Moses of New Hampshire and Dale
of Vermont.

"Maytime" at Castle

For a story of exquisite charm told against an enchantingly beautiful background, the screen has seldom equalled, never surpassed, the Preferred Picture, "Maytime," which was presented for the first time today at the Castle theatre.

Adapted from Rida Johnson
Young's play that has been a conspicuous success on the stage from half a dozen consecutive seasons, his Gasnier production tells a love story at once plaintive and dramatic.
It carries the spectator back to the days of old New York when Columbus Circle was farm lands and Washington Square was the neighborhood of an old and substantial aristocracy. We see the homestead presided over by Colonel Van Zandt, a gentleman rich and of respected lineage, who feels that disgrace has fallen upon his house when he discovers his daughter Otilie in love with Dick Wayne, the young gardener of the place.

His confederates expect him to invade New England once more because it is the stronghold of rules
committee members, Hale of Maine,
Moses of New Hampshire and Dale
of Vermont.

SCHOOL LAWS TO REDUCE THE COST

Educational Bills, Recently Enacted Are Now in Effect and Provide For Consolidation

WITH TOWNS AND TOWNSHIPS

Nine Methods For Lowering Costs are Provided, so That Taxation May be Given Cut

Indianapolis, Ind., May 4—Reduction of school costs in Indiana was foreseen today by George A. Spencer, assistant state superintendent of public instruction as machinery was put in motion for enforcement of the new school laws passed by the 1925 legislature.

The laws were put into effect on proclamation by the governor this week.

Three acts which were passed make possible the consolidation of cities and towns with townships. The addition of these acts now makes a total of nine possible ways in which some form of consolidation may be effected.

These laws indicate the tendency of a demand for more equitable distribution of school costs and also a desire on the part of rural people to provide equal educational opportunities for their children, Spencer said.

Last week the town of Waterloo voted to consolidate with Grant township so that adequate building facilities could be provided.

"Under the new laws, a township trustee may purchase a building which has already been constructed

New Chief?

Charles W. Waterman of Denver, Colo., is one of those mentioned as probable successor to Solicitor General James M. Beck, who is retiring to return to private life.

and bond the civil township for the amount," Spencer said.

"Cities may include a gymnasium and auditorium in the city hall."

"When signing an order for materials or supplies the township trustees must certify that he has sufficient funds appropriated to pay for them and must pay all bills upon receipt of the next succeeding semi-annual distribution of school funds."

Teaching of the Constitutions of Indiana and of the United States in grades six to twelve inclusive in all public, private and parochial schools as a regular course is required for the coming year, Spencer announced.

The state board of education is required to adopt rules and regulations for the administration of this act.

Courses in diet and nutrition are to be taught in psychology and domestic science classes under rules and regulations of the state board of education in accordance with one of the new laws, Spencer announced.

The law concerning the purchase of a United States flag was amended to make it compulsory with the township trustee. The flag is not to be less than four to six feet in size and is to be displayed upon all school buildings every day the schools are in session.

A heavy penalty is attached for failure to comply with provisions of this act, Spencer said.

The law governing disbursement of state aid funds for towns and townships was amended to provide for an auditor for the fund and also extended the provisions of the law to permit the state department to assist in the purchase of supplies. Repairs to the extent of $50 a school room is allowable under this act. Under the state school tax, over $1,166,000 was set aside for distribution this year. Less than $600,000 will be distributed under the new law.

RETURNS TO HOSPITAL

Mrs. Eva Lindale, who underwent a major operation six weeks ago at the Memorial Hospital in Connersville, was taken back to the hospital Saturday night where she underwent another operation. She is reported to be recovering nicely.

Wabash—Following the receipt of bids, the lowest of which was $233,000, the school city of Wabash was awaiting action by the state tax board on its bond issue of $220,000 for the construction of a new high school here.

My Platform

ABSOLUTE LAW ENFORCEMENT—I promise the citizens of Rushville that I will enforce all laws so long as they are on the Statute Books and that in so far as it is within my power, I will see that officers are appointed who will, without fear or favor, enforce the law.

MAINTAIN WATER & LIGHT PLANT—I promise to maintain the Water and Light Plant as a City owned plant, with rates as low as is consistent with the service given and the proper operation of the plant, and to fight any attempt of any person to do away with the plant as a city plant and sell it to private individuals.

CITY & COMMUNITY PROGRESS—I promise to do all within my power, consistent with the best interests of the good people of Rushville, to further the growth of this city, to bring new industries here and to develop present industries, to the end that Rushville may become the thriving city that it should be.

TAXES—I promise that I will personally investigate each and every proposal which would increase taxes, and oppose those that are not absolutely necessary for the benefit of the city, and to see that taxes collected, are properly expended, and that the citizens of Rushville receive full value for every dollar of their money so expended and to see that taxes are, at all times, kept to the lowest possible limit.

Tippling Fraternity Ships Out For Chicago

Kokomo, Ind., May 4—Assisting bricklayers in Chicago at eight dollars a day is much to be preferred to harvesting onions for the sovereign state of Indiana at three meals and bed.

At least that is the position taken by a large number of Kokomo's tippling fraternity.

Notice that the Wright air-tight liquor law is effective is going to mean a loss of population to this city. The boys who partake of moonshine, the juice of grape and rubbing alcohol are on the move.

Informed of the new regulations passed by the last state legislature, many of the boys who did not object to cracking down $1 costs when greeted by His Honor, do not take kindly to a state position.

They have heard the call of the big town with its good pay and lots of liberty. Hence, Chicago has been selected as the oasis across the arid desert of Indiana.

ALL OUT OF SORTS?

So Was This Rushville Woman Who Tells Her Experience

All too often women accept their pains and aches as natural to their sex. They fail to realize that weak kidneys are often to blame for that backache, those headaches, dizzy spells and that tired, depressed feeling. Thousands have found new health and strength by helping the weakened kidneys with Doan's Pills—a stimulant diuretic. This Rushville case is one of many.

Mrs. Lizzy Borem, 840 W. Ninth St. says: "My back pained so severely it seemed it would break. I had to stop work and go to bed. My kidneys were sluggish, too. I used Doan's Pills from Johnson's Drug Store and several boxes restored my health and rid me of kidney trouble."

DRIVER SHOULD SIGNAL

Turning left is an art all its own and when more automobile drivers master the art of making a left turn the number of motor car accidents in cities and country roads will be decreased materially according to a statement issued by Todd Stoops, secretary-manager of the Hoosier Motor Club.

"The new motor law, which increases the legal speed on the open road from twenty-five miles an hour to thirty-five miles an hour has increased the hazards of making a left turn on country roads," says Mr. Stoops, "and many reports are being received of accidents narrowly averted on account of motorists turning sharply left off a main traveled highway and directly in front of oncoming motorists traveling at the legal speed of thirty-five miles an hour."

"The left turn has always been considered the most dangerous of all motor car operations and the cautious driver will look to the front and rear and signal properly before attempting the performance. By all means the driver should signal before turning left, but he should also be sure that the motorist in the rear sees his signal and is not coming so fast as to make it impossible to avoid a rear-end collision. And the oncoming motorist is also to be considered by the one who turns left. Turning left directly in front of a car traveling at a speed of thirty-five miles an hour makes a hazardous situation for the oncoming driver who must crash into the motorist who has turned left or be faced with the possibility of a head-on collision by swerving."

"Every one who drives has been placed in harrowing positions by the one who turns left. If the brakes won't stop the car in time the oncoming motorist must hit, broadside, the automobile which has turned left with fatal consequences to all its occupants, or he must collide, head-on, with another car with possibly fatal consequences to himself and others and also bear the legal responsibility of being on the wrong side of the road when the collision occurs. There are very few who drive who have not thought of all these possibilities in less than a second, when confronted by an incapable driver who turns left."

"The left turn should be made slowly if traffic is heavy to give every one a chance to see and anticipate the danger. It is imperative that a signal is given first; second, look front and back, and third, if traffic is heavy slow down or stand still until traffic has lessened. By slowing down or standing still, drivers to the front and rear can avoid a collision and the left turn can be completed with absolute safety. It is the hurry-up left turn that makes gray hairs, grinding brakes and fatal accidents."

"Traffic policemen can relate many instances of accidents and near accidents on account of the left turn. This operation seems to be confusing to many drivers who take a left turn around a traffic man and fail to stop until traffic with the 'Go' signal is halted. A good slogan for every motorist would be 'Left Turn—Slow,' in the interest of safety and self-preservation."

"Police officers are showing great activity in some sections of the state and rigidly enforcing the provisions of the new motor law. Motorists should bear in mind that it is unlawful to travel faster than thirty-five miles an hour on the open road; unlawful to use a cut-out on any road and that signals should be given when approaching a cross-road or passing another car. Most of the arrests reported are based on violations of these provisions of the new act but a strict observance of all the provisions of the new motor laws will make motoring more pleasurable and safer."

CANADIANS EXPECT THIRSTY AMERICANS TO PAY WAR DEBT

By PAUL R. MALLON
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

(Copyright 1925, by United Press)
Toronto, Ont., May 4—Up here across the border where 4.4 percent beer becomes a legal beverage in another fortnight, they are oiling up the cash registers and polishing up the bars, in anticipation of sufficient influx of visitors from the dry United States this summer to pay off the Canadian war debt.

From coast to coast—Halifax to Vancouver—elaborate preparations have been made to cater to the American thirst.

Canada expects every pint to do its duty and provincial Treasury Price estimates that the 4.4 beer which goes on sale May 15, will bring in $6,750,000 annual revenue.

There will be hundreds of new saloons in Ontario as 500 applications for permits already have been filed with the authorities in anticipation of the new law becoming effective.

The province of Manitoba has officially announced it cleared $980,000 from selling all varieties of liquor during the eight months ending yesterday. Government profits in Quebec will net ten times that amount, according to conservative estimates. Other provinces expect returns accordingly.

As Ontario is the most accessible to the United States plans have been made for a dozen saloons in Bridgeburg—just a few minutes ride from Buffalo—and Niagara Falls, it is predicted, will be more popular with tourists than ever.

Enormous quantities of beer have been stored up by the O'Keefe and Cosgrave Breweries here. They have been "aging" it for the three months since the bill passed.

But the activity is not confined to Ontario. Out at Banff in Alberta, the golf course has been increased from nine to 18 holes and the 19th hole has been enlarged in anticipation of summer boarders from the states.

At Saskatoon Sask., the 12 leading hotel owners have rebelled against liquor restrictions and announce they will close unless granted the right to sell beer by the glass or bottle as they please. At the present time, they say Americans "smash furniture and generally raise Cain and all they buy from the hotel is lemon."

At Montreal the commission store

opposite the Mount Royal Hotel has ordered an extra stock to prepare for the American conventions which will flock there this summer.

Don't Be Too Late

Chiropractic Health Talk No. 212
By H. V. McCully, D. C., Ph. C.

Just the same as any piece of machinery gets beyond repair—so does the human body. For example, we will use an incoordination of the kidneys to bring to you exactly what I mean.

The kidneys have a specific work to do which is to carry away the waste or toxins of the body. Under healthy, normal conditions the kidneys are able to do twice the work that is required of them. Through strain or injury or in some unaccountable manner there is pressure brought to bear upon the nerves which supply the kidneys with vital force, at the point where they leave the spine. As a result, kidney action is cut down, congestion and a slow degeneration takes place. As time goes on, the kidneys are gradually but surely being destroyed.

The patient is fully aware that the kidneys are not working properly, but does nothing to have the condition corrected, thinking "maybe it will get better." At last so much of the working part of the kidneys is destroyed that if they were healed, there would not be enough left to carry on the normal work. In this case recovery is impossible.

This same process applies not only to the kidneys, but to any organ of the body. At the first sign of disorder, you should come in and have the cause removed by our spinal adjustments rather than wait until it is TOO LATE.

Men of Affairs Realize the Benefit of Keeping Fit
"I find the chiropractor very pleasant to visit. I take off coat and collar—he does a little adjusting. I get up and go about my business. Not half as bad as taking castor oil! I do not know much about the technique of Chiropractic, but from my experience it is successful!"
Lt. Gov. Davis of Pennsylvania, At Atlantic City, June, 1924.

cified, and asked for charity in judgment, promising that he would be just as charitable in judging members of his congregation.

The Rev. Mr. Cato commented on the Rush county hospitality, of which he had been apprised before coming to Rushville, and said that his experience with it during the first day and a half in Rushville showed to him that there was nothing lacking.

Eight were added to the church at Sunday's services, three of whom were the pastor and his wife and daughter, who were admitted by letter. Four became members by confession of faith and another by letter.

The Rev. Mr. Cato used for his text in the morning, First Corinthians, 3:9. "We love to listen to the invitation of Jesus," he said, "but we must not forget that Saviour who invites us to rest also invites us to work."

"Men are being appreciated by what they do more than by what they think; and yet what they think largely determines what they will do. More money is being given for benevolence, education and missions. Churches are being judged by this rather than for their great doctrines and great preachers."

Work strengthens faith and spiritual life and purifies, the pastor asserted. Christian work fortifies heart and mind against skepticism, he pointed out.

"There is profound philosophy back of the utterance of Jesus that it is more blessed to give than to receive," the speaker continued. "Work is only one form of giving. Jesus teaches that whatever goes out from you to bless another, comes back with increased blessing to yourself. The man who would injure another in only planning to injure himself more. The best way to bless yourself is to bless another. Withhold your money and you rob yourself as well as God. The faith that is not strong enough to save others is not strong enough to save you."

The Rev. Mr. Cato pointed out enjoyment and employment go hand in hand and that the busy church is the happy church.

He also showed that people have no trouble uniting when a great danger threatens, and that the problem is to make the church see how sin has brought starvation and death to millions and that Christ is bread for the starving.

"How startling it is," he continued, "that even God needs a co-worker, named man. Frail as a reed, yet this man can stand and defy omnipotence."

In closing, he referred to the many ways man had worked with God in developing the things on earth that He had provided.

Praying in the Holy Spirit. Such

prayer is the pathway to power, to peace, to progress. Prayer will either make a man quit sinning, or sin will make a man quit praying. It is an absolute necessity to the increasing life of the soul.

"Keeping yourselves in love of God. No law of soul building is more vital. As sunshine to the flowers so is the sunshine of God's love to the growing soul. Heliotherapy, sun-healing, is a healing success in many parts of the world today. Many diseases are said to be the diseases of darkness. Sunlight destroys these germs and contributes to health and to the resisting power of the body. Build your soul in the sunlight of God's love and build the sunlight in and you will be building for deathless service and for the inheritance of the saints in light."

First United Presbyterian

The morning sermon at the United Presbyterian church was based on Isaiah 40:2, "Speak ye comfortably to Jerusalem." "Consoling words may be spoken of the past," the pastor said. "As it's sins are forgiven, so its sorrows; and mistakes may be forgotten and its wisdom cherished. Encouraging words may be spoken of the present. Our influence has been broadened in measurably. Our interest is being appealed as never before. The help of each one is needed in every department of life and our Helper is near. Then hopeful words, are available as to the future. The period of service is short. The promises are very precious. The reward is very great and the place you fill is very important."

In the evening the sermon delivered by the pastor, was the first in the series on "What Others thought as to Jesus Christ." The topic was "The Opinion of Satan and Evil Angels as to His person and work." The pastor said in part: "The witnesses produced are exceedingly competent witnesses. Their information is full and accurate. It is not partial or distorted."

Demons are pure spirits. That is they are purely spiritual beings and are not hampered and hindered with material bodies as we are. It is hard for us to learn and easy for us to forget owing to bodies sin laden and poison soaked. As a result our information is partial, and in fragments and often inaccurate. Not so with demons. They know what is right and what is true.

"Demons are very ancient spirits. As to when they were created we have no information. So far as appears they, that is all angels, were created at once and their number has never been increased or diminished. The fall of Satan and his angels into sin and their expulsion from heaven took place before man's creation, how long we do not know."

"At the time of our Lord's ministry there could not have been less than 4,000 years old and very probably they had existed for ages."

"Demons are consequently very much experienced spirits. For ages before their infection they enjoyed heaven, and held a place of honor and favor there. Satan is supposed to have been an archangel. Then for ages they have populated hell and know all its dark secrets. For six millenniums they have ranged over the earth. Shortly after the creation of man they entered Eden and despoiled it. In Job's time, when asked 'When comest thou,' he said 'from walking to and from in the earth and from walking up and down in it.' Thus it seems they know intimately heaven and earth and hell. They are competent."

"But they are not very credible. Satan is a liar and the father of lies. Every demon is a past master in deception and in all kinds of treachery. Nevertheless we may gather that they have a very high opinion of Jesus Christ. Satan is consistent in his wickedness and we know his real opinion from his age long program and from his emphasis on certain things."

First Presbyterian

"At a time when there is a shortage of houses in Rushville, business is enlarging its plans and more laborers will be required," said the Rev. Mr. Wilson. "From the Christian standpoint we should be asking ourselves, where will they live?"

"Rushville needs more good houses that will rent at such price as wage earners can afford to live in them. They should have sufficient rooms for the comfort of a family, conveniences that make them enjoyable, well lighted and heated, suitable for a happy family."

"Christian principles should enter into the building of our houses as well as into our business and worship. This will help to sell Rushville and add to its future prosperity and happiness."

"But we need more than houses. We need homes. Some houses are merely stopping places. Material things are not enough in building a home."

"Home is not merely four walls

The Office of City Clerk

It is an office of more than passing importance to the voters of Rushville. It is equally as needful for the voters to exercise judgment in their selection for a city clerk nominee as it is for the other city offices.

This Office Requires One Experienced in that Line

For the past six years I have not missed a single session of the city council. I have attended these meetings in the capacity of your servant, to bring back the details of those meetings and relate them to you through the columns of The Daily Republican. I am City Editor of the newspaper, and am in a position that can link up closely the business of the city, (which is your business) and carry it to you.

To be Efficient, One Must be Qualified

In my visits at the council meetings, I have learned what it means to be City Clerk, and I know what the duties are in that office. I am a stenographer; typewriting is an essential part of this office, combined with bookkeeping and business letter writing experience. The records and business of the city are your business, and should be handled by one capable in all respects which will reflect to the credit of the city.

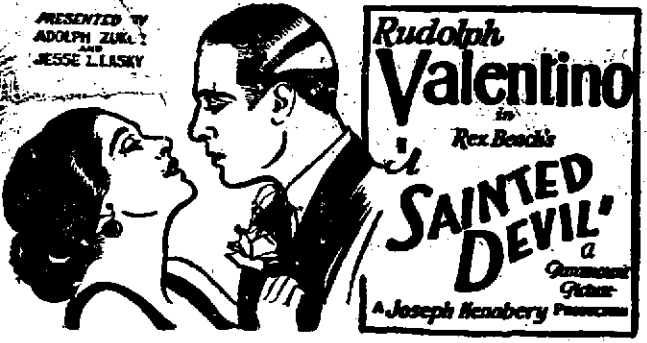

My Voting Number on All Republican Ballots is 16. I know that I am qualified, and am Asking Your Support at the Republican Primary, Tuesday.

THE REPUBLICANS SHOULD NOMINATE A CANDIDATE THAT CAN CARRY ON THIS OFFICE, AS IT HAS SO EFFICIENTLY BEEN CONDUCTED DURING THE PAST EIGHT YEARS.

The City Primary

The voters of Rushville will go to the polls Tuesday to select the nominees on the democratic and republican tickets who will face each other in the city election next fall. The primary takes the place of the old convention system, under which voters by precincts elected delegates to represent them at the nominating convention.

Under the present law, every voter is given an opportunity to vote directly for the person of his or her choice. It places greater responsibility upon the voter. No voter should vote without first obtaining sufficient information about the candidates to enable them to vote honestly and intelligently.

Although the direct primary has been in effect for some time it is still on trial and its value in comparison with the old convention system is doubted. The primary has yet to prove that it is the best method of selecting party candidates.

Any attempt that is made to prostitute the primary and turn it to purposes for which it is not intended will increase the sentiment against the system and will result ultimately in the repeal of the law. It is a good tool if properly used, but misuse will cause it to fall into disrepute.

The voter must swear that he will vote for the candidates of the party at the coming election, which he helps to choose in the primary; or that he voted for a majority of the candidates of that party at the last general election; or that he expects to affiliate with the political party, whose ticket he expects to help name in the primary, and will vote for the candidates of that party in the election.

This is no trivial matter. The voter violates his oath if he does not live up to one of these three conditions. He is not prevented from changing parties, but he is prevented, if he is honest, from endeavoring to cause the opposing party of his choice to nominate what he regards as a weak ticket, so that it will better enable his party to win at the election.

It is nothing short of dishonest for any man or woman voter to help select a party ticket in the primary with the idea of weakening the ticket and then vote for the other party in the election.

That is the inherent weakness of the primary system. The law makes proper safeguards against such a contingency, but those safeguards are dependent upon the honesty of the voters. If voters do not play square with the primary system, it is doomed.

Stewart's Washington Letter

BY CHARLES P. STEWART
NEA Service Writer
WASHINGTON — Militarists who abound here, are all excited over reports that Japan's reply to the United States' Hawaiian naval maneuvers is to be a set of maneuvers of her own, to show how easily she could beat such a fleet as this country's—of course in Far Eastern waters.

It isn't likely the Japanese think they could defeat America anywhere in the vicinity of the latter's home shores. Possibly they don't think they can defeat her at all. That idea may be merely a complex some people have got.

THE expected Japanese maneuvers are said to be scheduled for May 27. This makes the Washington militarists' complex worse. May 27 is the anniversary of the Battle of Tsushima, in which Japan's fleet destroyed Russia's, just 20 years ago.

"An apt reminder," say the militarists, "of the great sea fighter the Japanese are and how necessary it is to be ready for them."

WITH all due respect for Japan's courage and not disputing she can lick any fleet in the state of disrepair Russia's was in, the truth is that the Japanese are known among seafaring men as poor shipbuilders, bad sailors and perfectly impossible hands in an engine room.

THE classic example of Japan's shipbuilding is that of one of her crack 10,000-ton passenger liners, well known on the Pacific and still in service—with the Lord only knows what weight of concrete and plate iron in her hold, to keep her keel underneath her.

This craft's sister ship, which preceded her, was built in England. Her Japanese owners tried her out satisfactorily. Then they told the English builders they

Turning Out Good Citizens

In a bulletin recently issued by the Bureau of Education of the Interior Department we read: "The United States is prosperous * * but * * only half of our eligible voters actually vote even at the presidential elections; five millions of our people over 10 years of age are illiterate; ten millions of our children of school age are not attending school; we spend more for tobacco, cosmetics, and chewing gum than we do for education; half of our young men were found physically unfit for unlimited military service; our wage earners lose wages amounting to over two billion dollars a year because of preventable sickness; in 1870 there was 1 divorce for every 18 marriages; last year there was 1 divorce for every 8 marriages."

These are some of the problems confronting the State. It needs to help more of its people to become good citizens. The fewer the number of ill and privations of life, and the greater the happiness of humanity, the nearer we approach the social ideal. A progressive school is a miniature of society. Not only is its structure much the same but it carries on many of the same activities. It seeks to promote the welfare of the pupils through the best methods in use in society.

What are some of the school tasks confronting teachers? The school should give every child an equal opportunity to develop fully his initiative and ability. It should assure to him healthful conditions for mind and body. It should imbue him with the principles of personal honesty and a strong sense of his obligations to his family, his community, and his nation. It should give him the education and training necessary to support himself and to bear his just share in maintaining a community with high American ideals. It should develop his capacity for the wholesome use of leisure time. It should inculcate a broad and understanding patriotism which insures our country's highest good.

wanted another boat but would like to examine the plans first, with a view to possible modifications.

The builders, suspecting the Japanese of intending to do their own building from the English plans, made certain subtle changes before handing them over.

Sure enough, the new vessel was a Japanese product. Launching day arrived. The ship slid down the ways, hit the water and instantly turned bottom side up.

Later she was induced to assume a more dignified attitude, but it took English experts to persuade her to do it.

ALMOST all foreign airplane instructors who have tried to train Japanese aviators testify to the impossibility of developing them into first-class flying men.

be made, but practically without exception they lack the instinct of gentleness with machinery. "Cruelly" treated, it misbehaves.

JAPAN beat China in 1895. It looked wonderful but now we know there were few civilized countries—even little ones—that couldn't have done it. She beat Russia on paper—but had to accept the best terms she could get, because in a few more months she herself would have been beaten.

She took Kiaochow from the Germans but the latter were outnumbered 1000 to 1.

TO hear the Washington militarists preaching "preparedness," you'd think they considered Japan well-nigh invincible. But ask them, as experts, what showing they believe she'd make against a first-class fighting power, and their answer is that nobody knows—she might perform pretty creditably, or she might crumple at the first impact.

LEGION POSTS TO START CAMPAIGN

To Raise Their Quotas in the Legion National $5,000,000 Endowment Fund For Disabled

MOVEMENT WAS DELAYED

Three Cities, Shelbyville, Brookville and Ossian, Have Concluded Their Campaign

Indianapolis, Ind., May 4—American Legion posts in many cities of Indiana will conduct an intensive campaign from this time until May 15 for their quotas in the Legion national $5,000,000 endowment fund for disabled veterans and war orphans.

Although a number of posts and communities have reached the goal set for them, the movement has been delayed in some places. Thomas McConnell, commander of the Indiana department, announced today.

Shelbyville, Brookville and Ossian are included in a list of cities where the campaign recently has been concluded successfully, according to Commander McConnell.

More than $3,000 was raised in less than a week at Shelbyville, where the quota was $2,500. Brookville with a quota of $700 exceeded that amount. Ossian also went "over the top" with a wide margin.

The national endowment fund movement, which Commander McConnell declared, means aid for two classes of war sufferers; is now in full swing in every state of the country. Several states have reached the goals set for them and many have reached the point where success will be obtained shortly.

"Indiana has never fallen behind in any great undertaking in the past," declared Commander McConnell. "I am confident that she will not do so now."

"Much remains to be done to obtain that part of the national fund asked of our state but because of the uniform success which has met our efforts in places where a thorough campaign has been made, I know Indiana will not only raise its quota but exceed it."

"The impression must not be gained that this is a strictly Legion undertaking. The obligation to the disabled veterans and the children of those who have died rests equally upon all of us. Every one who appreciates the sacrifice made in his behalf by others should help the Legion in this campaign for the two chief classes of war sufferers."

R. H. S. ATHLETES DEFEAT GREENWOOD

Track and Field Team Wins What Was Scheduled to be Triangular Meet Saturday

GREENSBURG FAILS TO COME

Miller is High Point Man With Five Firsts and Locals Take All But Two Events

Rushville high school won what was scheduled to be a triangular track meet at Riverside park Saturday afternoon, but which resolved itself into a dual meet with Greenwood when Greensburg failed to put in an appearance.

Rushville scored 64 points to Greenwood's 35, winning nine firsts. Greenwood entries finished first in two events, the mile and 440 yard run.

Miller took five firsts for his team and as usual was the high point man. Newbold won two firsts, McNamara one and Farthing one.

Miller won the 100 yard dash, the 120 yard hurdles, the 220 yard dash, the shot put and the running broad jump. Newbold was first in the pole vault and 880 yard run, McNamara won the 220 yard hurdles and Farthing took the high jump.

Miller made the best time and should have had first in the 440 yard run, but was given second place when Greenwood complained that he brushed Jennings near the finish.

Newbold won the pole vault by going ten feet, two inches, and in an exhibition vault afterwards went ten feet, four inches.

Herman Phillips, former Rushville high school athlete and crack distance runner and member of the champion Butler college relay team, ran an exhibition half mile and mile and gave an exhibition in the running broad jump.

Greensburg's team was unable to come on account of participating in a Rotary club Boy's Week field day Saturday.

The mile and half mile relays were not run as scheduled. The placings and time in the meet were as follows:

100 yard dash—Miller (Rushville) 1st; Slater (Greenwood) 2nd; Fee (Greenwood) 3rd. Time 10 3-5 seconds.

120 yard hurdles—Miller (Rushville) 1st; Newbold (Rushville) 2nd; Moore (Greenwood) 3rd; Springer (Greenwood) disqualified. Time 12 2-10 seconds.

One mile run—Bailey (Greenwood) 1st; McNamara (Rushville) 2nd; Carter (Greenwood) 3rd. Time 5:30 4-10.

440 yard run—Jennings (Greenwood) 1st; Miller (Rushville) 2nd; Newbold (Rushville) 3rd. Time 54 2-5 seconds. (Made by Miller who finished first but was moved back to second on protest of Greenwood that he brushed Jennings near the tap in passing.)

220 yard dash—Miller (Rushville) 1st; Fee (Greenwood) 2nd; Lyons (Greenwood) 3rd. Time 23 3-5 seconds.

220 yard hurdle—McNamara (Rushville) 1st; Newbold (Rushville) 2nd; Moore (Greenwood) 3rd. Time 29 1-5 secs.

880 yard run—Newbold (Rushville) 1st; Bailey (Greenwood) 2nd; Pendley (Greenwood) 3rd. Time 2:21 3-5.

Running high jump—Farthing (Rushville) 1st; Miller (Rushville) 2nd; Moore (Greenwood) 3rd. Distance 5 ft. 2 1/2 inches.

Shot put—Miller (Rushville) 1st; Rehm (Greenwood) 2nd; Newbold (Rushville) 3rd. Distance 42 ft. 5 inches.

Pole vault—Newbold (Rushville) 1st; Jennings Greenwood 2nd; Arbuckle (Rushville) 3rd. Height 10 ft. 2 inches.

Running broad jump—Miller (Rushville) 1st; Moore (Greenwood) 2nd; Farthing (Rushville) 3rd. Distance 18 ft. 7 1/2 inches.

Attack Not Publicity Stunt

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, May 4—Theatrical producers always have been envious of the Pennsylvania station here baseball gets from the newspapers. Actors are all more or less jealous of the space that is devoted to the exploits of ball players. They claim that professional baseball is no more of a sport than theatricals and that it should be classified as an amusement and treated as such.

When Babe Ruth was carried out of the Pennsylvania station here several weeks ago after he had collapsed and when the presses of all the metropolitan papers were being held ready for an extra, a well-known producer at one of the theatrical clubs said:

"Perfectly staged. Not a flaw in design or execution. A million dollars' worth of publicity."

The Babe will be out of the game for at least a month and in that time the Yankees might lose so much distance that they couldn't regain it during the rest of the season. The importance of the Babe to the Yankee team has been shown time after time. He is not only a great hitter and a fine defensive player, but he is the real spirit and inspiration of the whole team.

EXPECT FIGHT OVER BUS FRANCHISES

Public Service Commission Predicts
Opposition From Traction Companies of State

AUTHORIZED BY NEW LAW

Moorhead Law Authorizes Public
Service Commission to Grant
Franchises to Bus Operators

Indianapolis, Ind., May 4—Strenuous opposition to the granting of franchises to motor bus lines paralleling interurban lines was expected from the traction companies by public service commission officials today.

A. L. Brady, president of the Indiana Union Traction company, has already notified the commission that his concern would fight the granting of franchises to bus operators along the routes of the company's lines.

Other traction and railroad concerns have sent in similar notifications. Granting of franchises to bus operators by the public service commission was authorized under the Moorhead law passed by the last legislature for public service commission regulation of inter-city common carrier motor busses and trucks.

Under the provisions of the law all bus lines that have been operating "lawfully" ninety days before the taking effect of the act may be granted franchises without a public hearing.

Public service commission officials expect the traction and railroad concerns to demand a public hearing before franchises are granted to bus lines paralleling their lines.

The contention of these concerns is expected to be that the busses have not been operating "lawfully." They are expected to contend that operators have been violating a statute enacted in 1913 that required a franchise from the county from all motor vehicles operating for profit.

It is absurd to think that the Yankees would keep the Babe out of the lineup for a month or six weeks' just to make good a publicity scheme.

Ruth no doubt will come out of the experience all to the good. He will be in better physical condition after the rest and while he will be much lighter, he will be stronger, as four weeks on a special diet will be just what was needed for his abused stomach.

Many causes of the Babe's illness are being whispered around and all of them but one are wrong. Ruth eats too much and that is what brings about all his troubles. He eats more and oftener than any three men on the Yankee team and he eats at the worst time. He has a big meal before he goes to the park and before the game he usually takes on three or four hot dog sandwiches and a couple of bottles of soda. When the natural kick-back comes, he fills up on bicarbonate of soda. He takes on a huge meal at dinner time and then gets hungry about midnight and goes to bed with a loaded stomach.

His doctors told him two years ago that he would have to watch his diet or that he would eat his way clear out of baseball, but the Babe is one who figures, what's the use in being hungry when you have money.

EXPLAIN PROVISIONS OF NEW PERMIT STATUTE

Instructions Received by County
Clerk Barlow From Fisheries and
Game Superintendent

RELATE TO EX-SERVICE MEN

Leonard Barlow, county clerk, has received instructions from George N. Mannfeld, superintendent of fisheries and game of the state conservation department, relating to free permits to honorably discharged soldiers, sailors and marines.

Under the 1925 act of the general assembly, provisions were made to give permits for fishing and hunting to those eligible under the new laws. The permits may be given to discharged soldiers, sailors and marines of the Civil War, either resident or non-residents of the state. The permits are also given to such veterans of all other wars, excepting they must reside in Indiana.

Application for permits should be made on the blank form furnished for that purpose by the state department. These applications are also sent into the state each month, along with the report of the licenses regularly sold. Clerks have been cautioned to look over the discharge papers carefully and be sure that they are genuine, and that the person applying for the license was discharged honorably.

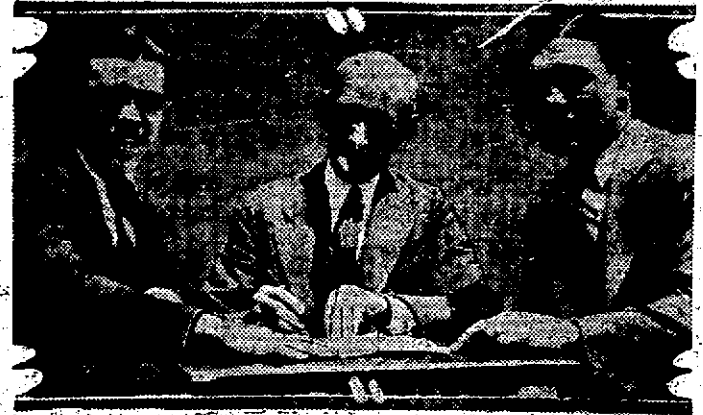

This law is now considered to be obsolete and no attempt is made to enforce it.

Between five and six hundred bus operators have been sent blanks for franchise applications by the public service commission under the Moorhead law.

Four application blanks have been returned.

The first certificate of convenience and necessity is expected to be granted a bus line operating between Indianapolis and Beach Grove which is just a few miles length.

KEEPING ONE EYE ON THE SCORE BOARD

Yesterday's Hero: With two down in the 9th inning and two strikes on him, Jack Fournier hit a homer with one on and gave the Robins a 2 to 1 victory over the Philies.

Bing Miller's home run in the second inning provided the Athletics with a 1 to 0 victory over the Yankees. It was the second time that Sam Gray shut out the Yankees this season.

Two homers by Rogers Hornsby enabled the Cardinals to beat the Cubs 8 to 7.

Pittsburgh pulled a ninth inning rally and scored four runs but Donohue went to the rescue of Luque and retired the side, the Reds winning 5 to 4.

The Indians and the Tigers pulled up 6-6 in a seven inning game that was called to allow Detroit to catch a train.

Charley Robertson gave a base on balls and then tossed in a wild hedge that let in a run and gave the Browns a 3 to 2 victory over the White Sox.

Dutch Reuther held the Red Sox safe all the way and hit a double and single that helped the Senators win, 7 to 2.

Carmelita Geraghty Known As One Of Best Dressed Girls In Filmland

Former Rushville Girl Always Among Those Present at Style Pageants, Revues and Fashionable Teas and No Fashionable Soiree at The Hotels But She is Engaged to Assist in Some Capacity

Carmelita Geraghty, of Hollywood, Calif., former Rushville girl, is known as one of the best dressed girls in filmland and is always among those present at style pageants, revues and fashionable teas, according to a story received from Edith M. Ryan, news writer, by the Daily Republican.

Miss Geraghty has appeared in pictures and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom J. Geraghty of Hollywood, who at one time lived in Rushville. Mr. Geraghty was editor of the Daily Republican, resigning to enter newspaper work in New York City, and later took up motion picture work, first as a scenario writer. He has advanced to the point where he has directed a number of pictures.

According to Miss Ryan, Peggy Hamilton, of the Los Angeles Times, responsible for the fashion page and who has staged many a revue and style show at leading hotels and theaters, always calls upon Carmelita as one of her aids. No fashionable soiree at the Ambassador or Biltmore, but Carmelita is engaged in assisting in some capacity and usually pours tea, Miss Ryan says.

"As clever men bend their energies in mastering the problem of law, medicine, banking or whatever their bent may be, Carmelita Geraghty has regarded dress of such prime importance that she gives it serious attention and thought," the writer declares. "She does not put on anything, never has, never will. She feels that the screen actress is the cynosure of every eye, on and off the screen. So the actress should be a standard."

"It has always been a tradition that the actress should lead in styles," Miss Geraghty is quoted as saying. "Consequently she should give all care to her wardrobe and select those costumes suitable to her personality, but of course, modish things."

"Miss Geraghty is not for fads," adds Miss Ryan. "She really emphasizes starting first with an understanding of one's own type and dressing accordingly. Being of Spanish descent, she gravitates naturally to a Latin note in her costumes. This note is just touched lightly so that it is difficult to describe it. But it brings out the vividness of her type, so she is 'easy to look at.'"

(Continued from Page 3) the St. Paul's M. E. church, delivered a sermon Sunday morning on the subject "The Law of the Increasing Life," taking his text from Judge 20:21, "but ye beloved, building up yourselves on your most holy faith, praying in the Holy Spirit, keep yourselves in the love of God, looking for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ unto eternal life."

"St. Jude is teaching us the law of the increasing life," the pastor explained and continued as follows: "It is a lesson that we all need to learn. In the natural world we recognize the reign of law. In the spiritual realm we are apt to think that we can defy all law and yet reach the ends we desire. Having been converted baptized and received into the church we sing 'tis done, the great transactions done.' In reality it has but begun. The church is not a resting place for the soul but a school for its culture. The supreme test of a man's orthodoxy is not what does he profess to believe nor even what is he and what has he done but what is he becoming."

"Jude teaches us that effort, continuous, persistent effort is the price of success. Growth may be unconscious but building is not. A gentleman said to me the other day, 'We must build from fifty to one hundred new houses in Rushville. We can't sit down and wait for them to grow.' The same law applies to life. By taking thought we cannot add one cubit to our physical stature but by taking thought we may add a hundred cubits to our spiritual stature or by failing to take thought we may lose a hundred. The man in the parable knew that barns must be built. The people called him wise because he knew that barns wouldn't build themselves but God called him a fool because he thought that barns required more care than souls. 'This night thy soul is required of thee. Then, Oh, the pity and the tragedy of it! He had barns but no soul worthy of being saved. Religion is soul building. It's vital test is no theology but the health. The nobleness, the sympathy, the spaciousness. The development of the soul. 'Building on the most holy faith,' not on the light, the trifling, the superficial, the irreverent. Nothing will stand the test of time that is not based on the revelation of God."

VICE PRES. DAWES TO TOUR COUNTRY

To Carry His Crusade For Changes in Senate Rules to all Parts of United States

TO BE IN INDIANA IN JUNE

To Speak in States of Senators Who Are Leading Members of Rules Committee

By WILLIAM J. LOSH (U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Washington, May 4—Vice President Dawes will personally carry his crusade for changes in the senate rules to all parts of the country this summer. The vice president's tour will take him to Alabama, Kentucky, Indiana, Ohio, Kansas, the far west, and probably again into New England.

His tentative schedule calls for a speech in Birmingham, Ala., May 27 and thereafter speeches in Kentucky in June; Indiana and Ohio in June, and July; Kansas in August, the far west in September or October, and in New England later.

The fundamental strategy in the Dawes campaign is to speak in states of senators who are leading members of the senate rules committee through which he must get his reforms before they can be adopted by the senate itself.

Dawes' speech in Birmingham is a tribute to Senator Oscar Underwood, Democrat, and a member of the committee, who is the only Democratic member who has rallied to his side in the fight, and likely to be the only one.

Kansas is the home state of Senator Charles Curtis, Republican leader, who so far has not committed himself, and Indiana is the home of Senator Jim Watson, assistant leader, also non-committal, and of Senator Bristow, Democrat. All are members of the rules committee.

The far western invasion, the Kentucky and the Ohio speeches are not strictly parts of this program of assault on the rules committee members but calculated as general appeals to the committee on separate points.

His confederates expect him to invade New England once more because it is the stronghold of rules committee members, Hale of Maine, Moses of New Hampshire and Dale of Vermont.

"Maytime" at Castle

For a story of exquisite charm told against an enchantingly beautiful background, the screen has seldom equalled, never surpassed, the Preferred Picture, "Maytime," which was presented for the first time today at the Castle theatre.

Adapted from Rida Johnson Young's play that has been a conspicuous success on the stage from half a dozen consecutive seasons, his Gasmier production tells a love story at once plaintive and dramatic. It carries the spectator back to the days of old New York when Columbus Circle was farm lands and Washington Square was the neighborhood of an old and substantial aristocracy. We see the homestead presided over by Colonel Van Zandt, a gentleman rich and of respected lineage, who feels that disgrace has fallen upon his house when he discovers his daughter Otilie in love with Dick Wayne, the young gardener on the place.

Rudolph Valentino at Princess

Rudolph Valentino's second Famous-Forty Paramount production, "A Sainted Devil," with Helen D'Amey, dary-eyed Spanish beauty; Nita Naldi, Louise Lagrange, Dagmar Godowsky and others equally as prominent, will be shown at the Princess theatre today and Tuesday.

Valentino as a young man of the world, living in South America, having been educated in Paris is betrothed to a girl raised in a convent and whom he has never seen. It is a case of love at first sight for both, and then the happy day arrives only to have her—But it would be spoiling everything to say more.

It's a great picture, "A Sainted Devil"—Valentino's ideal role, a Rex Beach story, directed by the man who made "The Stranger," Joseph Henabery.

You just can't afford to miss this one. And if you're a real Valentino admirer, you won't.

SCHOOL LAWS TO REDUCE THE COST

Educational Bills, Recently Enacted
Are Now in Effect and Provide
For Consolidation

WITH TOWNS AND TOWNSHIPS

Nine Methods For Lowering Costs are Provided, so That Taxation
May be Given Cut

Indianapolis, Ind., May 4—Reduction of school costs in Indiana was foreseen today by George A. Spencer, assistant state superintendent of public instruction as machinery was put in motion for enforcement of the new school laws passed by the 1925 legislature.

The laws were put into effect on proclamation by the governor this week.

Three acts which were passed make possible the consolidation of cities and towns with townships. The addition of these acts now makes a total of nine possible ways in which some form of consolidation may be effected.

These laws indicate the tendency of a demand for more equitable distribution of school costs and also a desire on the part of rural people to provide equal educational opportunities for their children, Spencer said.

Last week the town of Waterloo voted to consolidate with Grant township so that adequate building facilities could be provided.

"Under the new laws, a township trustee may purchase a building which has already been constructed and bond the civil township for the amount," Spencer said.

"Cities may include a gymnasium and auditorium in the city hall."

"When signing an order for materials or supplies the township trustees must certify that he has sufficient funds appropriated to pay for them and must pay all bills upon receipt of the next succeeding semi-annual distribution of school funds."

Teaching of the Constitutions of Indiana and of the United States in grades six to twelve inclusive in all public, private and parochial schools as a regular course is required for the coming year, Spencer announced.

The state board of education is required to adopt rules and regulations for the administration of this act.

Courses in diet and nutrition are to be taught in psychology and domestic science classes under rules and regulations of the state board of education in accordance with one of the new laws, Spencer announced.

The law concerning the purchase of a United States flag was amended to make it compulsory with the township trustee. The flag is not to be less than four to six feet in size and is to be displayed upon all school buildings every day the schools are in session.

A heavy penalty is attached for failure to comply with provisions of this act, Spencer said.

The law governing disbursement of state aid funds for towns and townships was amended to provide for an auditor for the fund and also extended the provisions of the law to permit the state department to assist in the purchase of supplies. Repairs to the extent of $50 a school room is allowable under this act. Under the state school tax, over $1,166,000 was set aside for distribution this year. Less than $600,000 will be distributed under the new law.

RETURNS TO HOSPITAL

Mrs. Eva Lindale, who underwent a major operation six weeks ago at the Memorial Hospital in Connersville, was taken back to the hospital Saturday night where she underwent another operation. She is reported to be recovering nicely.

Wabash—Following the receipt of bids, the lowest of which was $233,000, the school city of Wabash was awaiting action by the state tax board on its bond issue of $220,000 for the construction of a new high school here.

Eat And Be Merry

MRS. BELLA WINZENREAD

"I was in poor health for a number of years with stomach and bowel trouble," said Mrs. Bella Winzenread of 1525 Lawton St., Indianapolis, Ind. "I would have nervous indigestion and suffered with gas in my stomach—was in pain nearly all the time. I had ten of the best doctors; they would help me a little at first, then I would get no better. At last I started taking Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and began to improve. I took ten bottles and now I don't have that gas any more. I took Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets along with the 'Discovery' and feel fine. I can't say enough for Dr. Pierce's remedies. I have my little grandson with me and he was weak and sickly, his hands were cold and clammy, but I gave him the 'Medical Discovery' and now he is well and getting fat." All dealers.

Send Dr. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., 10c if you desire a trial pkg. tablets.

My Platform

ABSOLUTE LAW ENFORCEMENT—I promise the citizens of Rushville that I will enforce all laws so long as they are on the Statute Books and that in so far as it is within my power, I will see that officers are appointed who will, without fear or favor, enforce the law.

MAINTAIN WATER & LIGHT PLANT—I promise to maintain the Water and Light Plant as a City owned plant, with rates as low as is consistent with the service given and the proper operation of the plant, and to fight any attempt of any person to do away with the plant as a city plant and sell it to private individuals.

CITY & COMMUNITY PROGRESS—I promise to do all within my power, consistent with the best interests of the good people of Rushville, to further the growth of this city, to bring new industries here and to develop present industries, to the end that Rushville may become the thriving city that it should be.

TAXES—I promise that I will personally investigate each and every proposal which would increase taxes, and oppose those that are not absolutely necessary for the benefit of the city, and to see that taxes collected, are properly expended, and that the citizens of Rushville receive full value for every dollar of their money so expended and to see that taxes are, at all times, kept to the lowest possible limit.

Tipping Fraternity Ships Out For Chicago

Kokomo, Ind., May 4—Assisting bricklayers in Chicago at eight dollars a day is much to be preferred to harvesting onions for the sovereign state of Indiana at three meals and bed.

At least that is the position taken by a large number of Kokomo's tipping fraternity.

Notice that the Wright air-tight liquor law is effective is going to mean a loss of population to this city. The boys who partake of moonshine, the juice of grape and rubbing alcohol are on the move.

Informed of the new regulations passed by the last state legislature, many of the boys who did not object to cracking down $1 costs when greeted by His Honor, do not take kindly to a state position.

They have heard the call of the big town with its good pay and lots of liberty. Hence, Chicago has been selected as the oasis across the arid desert of Indiana.

ALL OUT OF SORTS?

So Was This Rushville Woman Who Tells Her Experience

All too often women accept their pains and aches as natural to their sex. They fail to realize that weak kidneys are often to blame for that backache, those headaches, dizzy spells and that tired, depressed feeling. Thousands have found new health and strength by helping the weakened kidneys with Doan's Pills—a stimulant diuretic. This Rushville case is one of many.

Mrs. Lizzy Borem, 840 W. Ninth St. says: "My back pained so severely it seemed it would break. I had to stop work and go to bed. My kidneys were sluggish, too. I used Doan's Pills from Johnson's Drug Store and several boxes restored my health and rid me of kidney trouble."

Don't Ask My Friends About Me Ask My Enemies

they know things about me that I don't know myself. As to my ability, it may be as little as they say it is but a man of little ability doing his best might be better than a man of much ability doing nothing.

MY ONLY RECOMMENDATION is that I promise to do my best as I see it after carefully considering all angles of every question that I am authorized to help decide.

I am a member of no secret orders, no church or lodge, or any other organization, except the Rushville Gun & Rifle Club of the N. R. A. of which all by-laws, rules and regulations are open for inspection to anyone at any time.

I haven't asked anyone for his or her vote and haven't handed out any cards. This ad will be the only way that I will bother you about your vote.

If you see it my way I will do my best to serve you. If you don't, thank you anyway.
